The image shows a 'User Registration' dialog box for 'Pluck'. The dialog has a title bar 'User Registration' and a Pluck logo. On the left, there is a list of reasons to register: 'Why register: Can't share. Can't sync. What can you do? More marketing stuff.' The main area contains registration fields: 'E-mail address:' with the value 'busey@pluck.com', 'Password:' with '', and 'Confirm Password:' with ''. A note states: 'E-mail addresses must be verified before the account can become active. In future versions you will be able to register multiple e-mail addresses.' Another note states: 'Passwords must be at least six characters in length and must contain at least one number or symbol.' Below these is a question 'Do you use multiple computers?' with radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No'. A final note says: 'Select yes if you use multiple computers and you want Pluck to help you keep your web experience synchronized between them.' At the bottom are three buttons: '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel'. A reference number '300' with an arrow points to the 'Confirm Password' field.

The image shows a software dialog box titled "User Registration" with a subtitle "Multiple Computers Synchronization Options". It contains two radio button questions. The first question asks if the user wants Pluck to automatically synchronize favorites information between multiple computers, with "Yes" selected. The second question asks if the user wants Pluck to import favorites from Internet Explorer into Pluck Favorites, with "No" selected. A note explains that synchronization only works with Pluck Favorites. A reference numeral "300" with an arrow points to the "No" radio button of the second question. At the bottom are three buttons: "< Back", "Next >", and "Cancel".

The image shows a software dialog box titled "User Registration". Inside, the section "E-mail Notification Options" is highlighted. Below this, the text reads "Sharing Links with Users Who Are Not Registered with Pluck". A question is posed: "If a user does not have Pluck installed, Pluck will automatically e-mail the shared link, note, and other information to the user. Is this ok?". Two radio buttons are provided: "Yes" (which is selected) and "No". A follow-up instruction states: "If you do not enable this option, attempts to share links with users who are not Pluck users will not be work." Below this, another instruction says: "If you would like to include an additional message in this e-mail type it here:". This is followed by a text input field labeled "Enter Text" and a small icon bar with four icons: a left arrow, a right arrow, a magnifying glass, and a checkmark. A reference number "300" with an arrow points to the icon bar. At the bottom of the dialog, there are three buttons: "< Back", "Next >", and "Cancel". A note at the bottom states: "Note: Pluck uses e-mail addresses only to deliver links you have shared with users, we do not sell these e-mail addresses or use them for other purposes."
